In Memory of
Morris G. Rosenthal

---

Senator Baker offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 15)

Whereas, On June 16, 1959, the City of Houston and the State of Texas lost an outstanding citizen, business leader, and tireless worker with underprivileged boys in the death of Morris G. Rosenthal; and

Whereas, Despite a grave illness, lasting for many months, Mr. Rosenthal continued active almost to the end, his interest in the Variety Boys Club and Boys Harbor never waning; and

Whereas, With the exception of his military service, his entire lifetime of only 47 years was spent in his native City of Houston, where he achieved eminent success in his profession and in business: He was assistant district attorney from 1937 to 1941, and assistant city attorney from 1941 to 1942; he was regional vice-president of the Texas Title Association; he was deputy labor commissioner for the State; he was president of the Southern Title Company and the Southern Title Guaranty Company; and

Whereas, During his service in World War II, he went into the Army as a private and rose to captain, seeing action with the American Third Division and the French Second Corps in Europe; later he was with the Seventh Headquarters at Heidelberg, Germany; and

Whereas, He was devoutly religious and had served as treasurer and director of Temple Emanu El, and as a member of the Jewish Community Council; and

Whereas, His life was an example of unselfish devotion to his family and to his fellowman; and

Whereas, He is survived by his wife; a son, Gary Alan; his mother, Mrs. Bertha Rosenthal; a sister, Mrs. Ben Rosenthal; and two brothers, William and Harry Rosenthal, all of Houston; and

Whereas, The Senate of the State of Texas wishes to recognize and pay tribute to the outstanding life of this worthy citizen; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That a page of the Senate Journal be devoted to the memory of Morris G. Rosenthal, and that the Senate of the 56th Legislature express deepest sympathy to his family and to all who knew and loved him; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to his wife, to his mother, and to his son.

The resolution was read and was adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.
